

CLICK HERE TO ACTIVATE

LESSON

PART 3

UNIT 4

Tenali Rama And The Magician

Warm Up

A. Magicians hold the audience spellbound with their magic tricks. Read about a few great magicians of the twentieth century.

David Copperfield is a very famous American magician. He made an aeroplane disappear while a big group of people watched. He also made the 305 feet high Statue of Liberty in New York vanish while the audience looked on in astonishment.

PC Sorcar (Senior) was also a well-known Indian magician who surprised everyone with his magic tricks. He would always dress up like a king or prince while performing. He showed the flying carpet trick and many others that made him popular all over the world. His son, PC Sorcar Junior, now presents magic shows all over the world.

B. Have you ever watched a magic show? Share your experience with the class.

Read and Enjoy

King Krishnadevaraya was a mighty king and he admired Tenali Rama for his wisdom and presence of mind. Read on and find out what happens in the king's court one day.

mighty : powerful admired : regarded with respect

wisdom : the quality of having experience, knowledge and good judgement presence of mind : a calm state of mind that helps one to think clearly and be witty in an emergency

Your Majesty, I'm Jamasha. I've come from far to show you some magic tricks. I'll show them only after you grant me permission.

Yes, you have my permission.

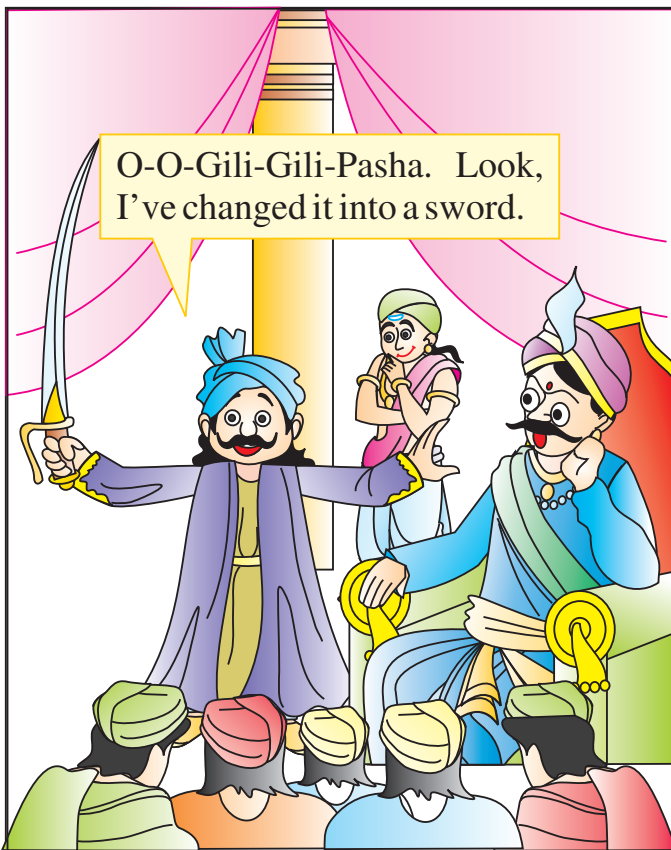

Now, can you all see this? What is it?

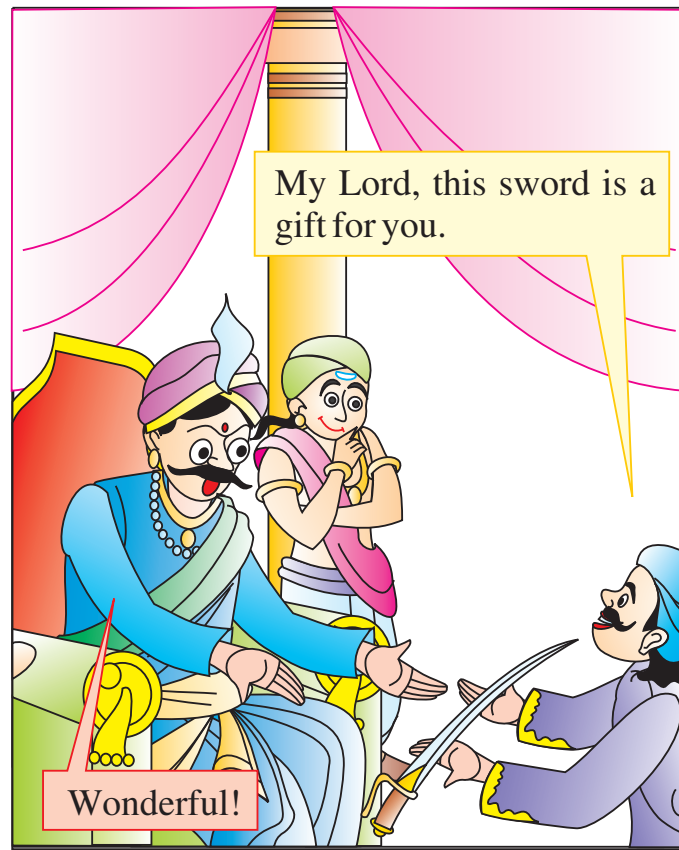

Right. O-O-Gili-Gili-Pasha...

It's a stick.

O-O-Gili-Gili-Pasha. Look, I've changed it into a sword.

My Lord, this sword is a gift for you.

Wonderful!

Now, hold your breath. Here's a bouquet of flowers. See, I'll use my magical powers to change this into something else, right before your eyes.

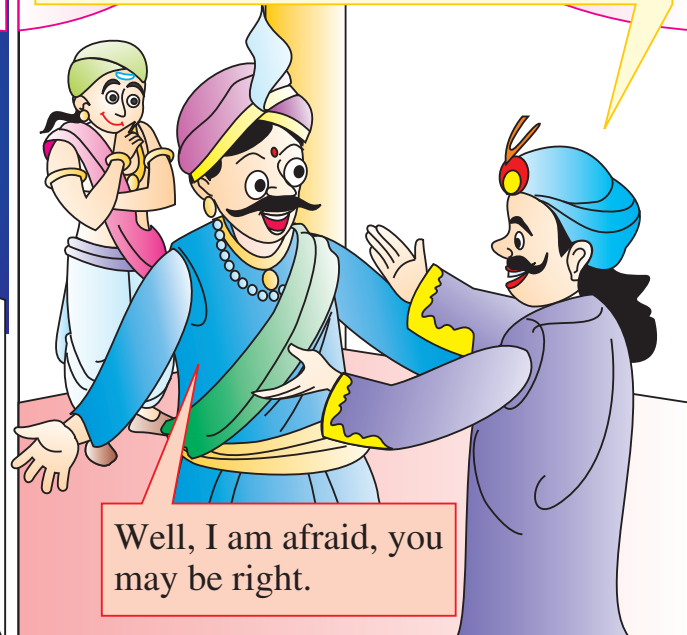

O-O-Gili-Gili-Pasha.
Look, now it has changed into a pigeon.

I'll get the moon here. That's a big challenge for me. O-O-Gili-Gili-Pasha. Here's the moon! After a few years I'll use my powers on heavenly bodies. The moon will vanish from the sky and there will be moonlight in your courtroom.

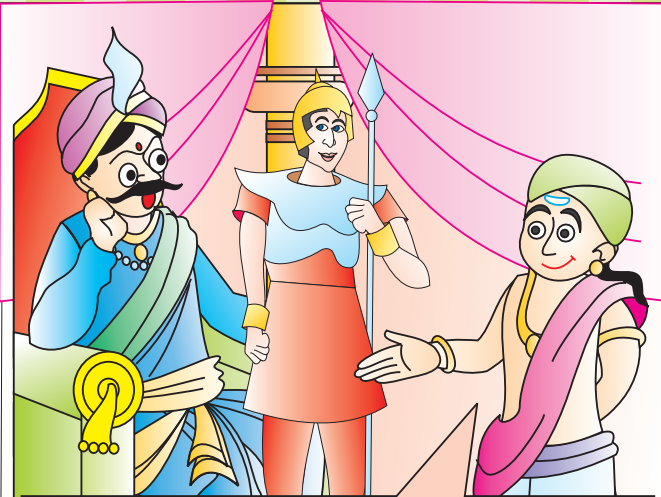

Now, look, the moon isn't there! It has vanished! Your Majesty, people call me the Giant of Magic. I'm sure there is nobody in your kingdom who is such an expert and can defeat me.

Well, I challenge you. I have observed you performing. There is a magic trick that I can perform with my eyes closed, but you cannot, with your eyes wide open.

Ha, Ha! It sounds simple. I'll be able to perform it here and now.

O.K. Let me talk to the gatekeeper for a moment. (He whispers to the gatekeeper.)

Look, I put some sand from this pouch on my closed eyes. I'll open my eyes after two minutes without a problem. Then, you'll put sand in your open eyes. Let's see if you can do it.

That's impossible! I can't do that. How can I put sand in my eyes? I accept my defeat. I take your leave now.

Well done, Tenali Rama. You are just brilliant.

Thank you My Lord.

I'm not a great magician, Your Majesty. I would like to say that magic is about creating illusions. A magician merely uses his skills to influence the thoughts of others.

Read and Understand

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

- Jamasha had come to the king's court to
(a) dance (b) sing
(c) perform magic tricks (d) narrate a story
- The magician changed a bouquet of flowers into
(a) a sword (b) a pigeon
(c) a vase (d) the moon
- The magician told the king to get
(a) the moon (b) the sun
(c) a nightingale (d) a star

B. Answer the following questions.

- Why did King Krishnadevaraya admire Tenali Rama?
- What did the magician present to the king as a gift?
- What happened in the courtroom when the magician got the moon?
- What was the magician popularly called by the people?
- Who challenged the magician?
- What did Tenali Rama challenge the magician to do with open eyes?
- Do you think that Tenali Rama was truly a magician? Why?
- What helped Tenali Rama defeat the magician?

C. HOTS

- Do you think that a wise person can easily win a challenge? Discuss with respect to the story.

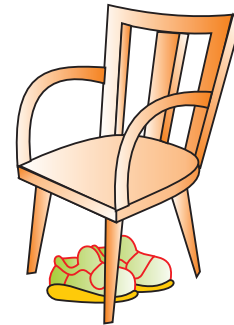

Prepositions

Read the following sentence.

I kept my shoes under the chair.

The coloured word is a preposition. A preposition is a word placed before a noun or pronoun to show its relation with some other noun or pronoun in the sentence. The word 'preposition' means 'pre+position'. This indicates 'placed before'.

A noun or pronoun following a preposition is called its object.

In the above example, under is the preposition and the chair is its object. A preposition is often used in a sentence with respect to time, position and place. Some important prepositions are on, in, above, at, for, to, into and of.

Examples : Rafiq was born at Jaipur in Rajasthan on 10 February 1990. He studied in my school for ten years and his performance was above the performance of others in the class. He often came to school by rickshaw. He was helpful to me and spoke on books and authors in most activity periods. Whenever he walked into the class, he smiled at others.

All the coloured words are prepositions.

You will note that we use in to show a location and into to indicate movement from a place.

A. Tick (✓) the correct prepositions given within brackets.

1. The king was seated (on/above) his throne. Tenali Rama sat (on/for) his right and the magician stood (at/above) the centre of the courtroom.
2. The magician showed magic tricks (in/to) everyone in the court (for/of) quite some time.
3. The magician changed a stick (into/of) a sword (into/in) a moment.
4. There was a canopy (above/on) the king's head. It was made (of/into) velvet.
5. The magician put all his things (into/to) a bag and left the court when he was defeated (by/of) Tenali Rama.

Prepositional Phrases

A phrase is a group of words that conveys some meaning but not a complete meaning. A group of words used as a single preposition is called a phrase preposition.

1. In order to catch the flight, I hired a taxi.
2. She attended school in spite of being ill.
3. Instead of watching television, complete your project first.

The coloured groups of words are prepositional phrases. Some other examples of prepositional phrases are :

according to in addition to in place of along with in case of in front of

B. Match words in the two columns to form prepositional phrases.

Column A

1. in
2. by
3. in
4. because

()
()
()
()

Column B

- (a) means of
- (b) order to
- (c) of
- (d) course of

C. Use suitable prepositional phrases from those given above to fill in the blanks.

1. _____ big boats the flood victims were taken to safe places.
2. _____ catch the thief, the policeman ran fast after him.
3. Gagan stood first in his class _____ his hard work and dedication.
4. _____ his treatment, the patient showed signs of quick recovery.

LET'S SPELL

Add the missing letters to complete the following words. Use the clues given in the box and learn the spellings.

courtiers expert influence permission magical illusions

1. __er__i__ __i__n
2. __o__r__i__ __s
3. __a__ __c__l
4. __x__ __r__
5. __n__l__ __n__e
6. __l__u__ __ __n__

VOCABULARY

Word Power

An anagram is a word or phrase made by using the letters of another word or phrase in a different order, e.g., 'Ten' is an anagram of 'Net'. Rearrange the letters of the words given below and form new words from them. The first one has been done for you.

- | | | | | | |
|-----------|---|-----------------------------|----------|---|-----------------------------|
| 1. coal | → | cola | 2. diary | → |   |
| 3. course | → |   | 4. soil | → |   |
| 5. reap | → |   | 6. fires | → |   |
| 7. lump | → |   | 8. last | → |   |

LET'S READ

Read the following passage :

Tenali Rama was a poet and jester in the court of the King Krishnadevaraya who was the ruler of Vijayanagar Empire in the 16th century. The king was very impressed by the intelligence and wit of Tenali Rama. It is believed that many scholars, saints, singers, poets, drama-troupes and magicians often visited the king's court and showed their skills. The king would also reward them suitably. He was a very powerful ruler. His court had 8 poets known as "Ashtadiggajalu or 8 Pillars". King Krishnadevaraya encouraged the poets and scholars in his kingdom. They wrote mainly in Kannada, Tamil, Telugu and Sanskrit.

A. Now answer these questions.

1. Name the king in whose court Tenali Rama was a poet.
2. What was the name of the empire where the king ruled?
3. Why was the king impressed by Tenali Rama?
4. Who were called Ashtadiggajalu in the king's court?
5. Whom did the king encourage in his kingdom?
6. Name any two languages used by the poets and scholars in the kingdom during that time.

B. Write the antonyms of the following words.

- | | | | | | |
|-----------------|---|-----------------------------|---------------|---|-----------------------------|
| 1. intelligence | × |   | 2. reward | × |   |
| 3. powerful | × |   | 4. encouraged | × |   |

LET'S PRACTISE

Follow your teacher while he/she is saying and pronounce the words correctly.

|i|

1. lit
2. pit
3. grit
4. knit
5. pill
6. sit
7. sin
8. nip
9. fishery
10. rid

|a|

1. light
2. spite
3. right
4. night
5. pile
6. sight
7. design
8. organise
9. advisory
10. ride

LET'S CONVERSE

Read the following conversation and enact it out with your partner in the class.

Srikanth : Hey Pranav, did you like the magic show ?

Pranav : Yes, I did. What a great way to celebrate Children's Day in school! We should thank our teachers and Principal ma'am for arranging the show and making the day special for us.

Srikanth : Definitely. Which magic tricks did you like the most ?

Pranav : I liked the way the magician used his powers to make the rug float in the air on stage. It was amazing! What about you ? Which trick did you find the most fascinating ?

Srikanth : I liked the way the magician disappeared from the stage and suddenly appeared at the far end of the auditorium. Wonderful!

Pranav : You're right. I enjoyed myself thoroughly.

Srikanth : Me, too.

RHYME TIME

Read aloud the following poem and then recite it in a group in the class.

The magician bowed and greeted,
All in the hall, as the tiny bird tweeted,
In a cage on the table, it fluttered,
To be freed, soon the magician whispered.

"Fly, fly away to a distant land,
Bring news of kings and their palaces grand,
I want to turn everything into gold,
At high prices that can be sold."

The bird flew away very happily,
Only to return in moments, hurriedly,
"The king of a distant land is a magician great,
He will turn you into a bird without a wait,"

The magician was dumbstruck,
Thought 'That is my bad luck,
I don't want to live in a cage',
Said, "Today, I set you free on this stage."

A. State whether the following statements about the poem are True or False.

1. The little bird was happy in the cage. _____
2. The magician was performing in front of many people. _____
3. The bird was sent to bring news of fairies and mermaids. _____
4. The king of a distant land was also a magician. _____
5. The king wanted to be turned into a bird. _____

B. Spot and underline the rhyming words.

WRITING SKILLS

Transcription

Circle the prepositions used in these lines as you rewrite the passage neatly in your notebook.

I would like to say something. Magic is about creating illusions. A magician merely uses his skills to influence the thoughts of others.

Composition

Add your own words to complete the following sentences. Make sure that each sentence has at least one preposition.

1. After a few years _____
2. I will use my _____
3. A magician _____

HOMEWORK

Imagine you were at King Krishnadevaraya's court and watched the magician perform there. You narrate the details to your family. Write a narrative paragraph of 7-8 sentences about it. You may begin by writing :

Jamasha, a great magician, was at the king's court. He

PROJECT WORK

Work in groups of ten and enact the story as a play in the class.

VALUE CORNER / LIFE SKILLS

A person with knowledge usually speaks as he/she expresses ideas and thoughts. But a wise person listens more than he speaks because he wants to learn more from others.

Knowledge speaks, but wisdom listens.

- Jimi Hendrix